Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: BURMESE BLAZER's strike-rate hardly makes him bet-compelling but he's been better than the result on a few occasions this year and may be capable of taking advantage of this drop in class. The Ruth Carr pair Cosmic Chatter and Vallarta can give him most to do.

TIMEFORM VIEW: YES YOU wasn't seen to best effect over 7f at Redcar last time and she had been shaping up quite nicely prior to that so might be worth siding with at a venue where she's enjoyed success before. A stiff 6f on testing ground could be ideal for Conga and she may provide the main threat ahead of Mick Channon's Quirky Gertie.

TIMEFORM VIEW: MAKYON is about the only one in this line-up who has shown he's fully effective on very testing ground and he can make light of top weight on this nursery debut. National League leaves the impression he has a bigger performance in him and could be the one for the forecast spot.
