ATR VERDICT: ARABIAN MOON added to his two placed efforts at Ffos Las with a silver medal in a 7f Doncaster maiden last month and looks worth another chance as he steps up to a mile for the first time today. Talap has got closer to the target with each outing and can improve on his Redcar third 12 days ago, but a bigger threat to the selection may be Sir Arthur Dayne, who made the frame in a better contest at Ayr just over a fortnight ago.

Top Tip: ARABIAN MOON (1)

Watch out for: SIR ARTHUR DAYNE (2)

ATR VERDICT: BOTTOM BAY made a promising debut over 7f at Leicester last month, when catching the eye staying on from off the pace once the penny dropped, and he should know more about the game now, as well as appreciate this extra furlong. He is preferred to Tinnahalla, who stepped up on his Sandown debut to fill the runner-up berth over 7f at Southwell latest and has scope for further progress. Back From Dubai's dam won over this trip in France and he must be respected first time out in the colours of Godolphin, especially if the market vibes are positive.

Top Tip: BOTTOM BAY (6)
Watch out for: TINNAHALLA (10)

ATR VERDICT: PLAIT is well clear on official ratings in this claimer and arrives in good heart after filling the runner-up spot in a 1m1f Goodwood handicap 12 days ago. That was on heavy ground so the conditions should be no issue here and Michael Bell's charge is fancied to go one better, possibly at the main expense of Dawn Treader, who found a bit of form again with placed efforts at Chelmsford and Brighton last month, and last-time-out Chepstow winner Elegant Love.

Top Tip: PLAIT (1)
Watch out for: DAWN TREADER (5)

10 (4)		0-515	SANDYMAN 30 ch g Footstepsinthesand - Quiz Mistress	3 8 - 6	L Morris P F I Cole	78

ATR VERDICT: TORCELLO has relished the change in ground and completed a 1m2f double when making all with ease in the mud at Epsom last weekend, coming home six lengths clear of his rivals and with enough in hand to suggest he can defy a 5lb penalty to complete the hat-trick here. Crystal King is respected as he's dropped in class for Sir Michael Stoute and Ryan Moore but has no margin for error under top weight and the main danger to the selection may be Lightly Squeeze. Harry Fry's charge returned from a layoff with a comfortable victory at Haydock over a similar trip last month and has scope for improvement.

Top Tip: TORCELLO (5)

Watch out for: LIGHTLY SQUEEZE (7)

ATR VERDICT: Medieval has been running well in defeat and should give another good account after being eased 1lb by the assessor, but he may have to play second fiddle to LOS CAMACHOS. The selection led for a long way when a good third over the extended 1m1f in the mud at Goodwood late last month and could take some catching off the same mark now dropped back in trip. Scofflaw and last-time-out Bath winner Secret Return are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: LOFTY sets the standard here and can gain a deserved success now back in maiden company. After three encouraging qualifying runs, he went very close to making a successful handicap debut over this trip at Leicester when last seen in June and this looks easier than the maidens he was contesting before that. If he needs the run then Festina and the experienced Mrs Worthington look most likely to capitalise.

Top Tip: LOFTY (3)
Watch out for: FESTINA (5)

ATR VERDICT: Stay Forever is respected off only a 2lb higher mark than when scoring over a mile at Sandown at the end of July, but this sprint trip may be a little sharp for her and preference is for LALANIA. Stuart Williams' filly is proven over 6f and is beginning to look well treated now, having gone very close at Yarmouth off 2lb higher in August. Secondo, a winner at Chepstow in July, remains in good form and can have his say, along with C&D scorer Smokey Lane.

Top Tip: LALANIA (4)
