ATR VERDICT: Never In Red landed a Brighton maiden 24 days ago but might struggle to follow up under a penalty, having taken four attempts to get off the mark, while Stony Look, who finished fourth on debut over 1m here, could do better now dropped in trip with that experience under her belt. However, it will take some doing to account for STERLING STAMP, who impressed when third here last month. That effort came after a three-month break and this extra furlong will really help.

Top Tip: STERLING STAMP (8)

ATR VERDICT: Smokey Bear made it third time lucky at Newbury 20 days ago and Tom Greatrex's 5lb claim cancels out the majority of his penalty, while 160,000gns yearling Badri is expected to take a step forward from his Newmarket debut sixth. Roman Melody is slowly going the right way, but GREAT IMAGE may take some stopping for the in-form Saeed bin Suroor. Runner-up at Catterick on his second start 19 days ago, he bumped into a smart colt that day and could claim compensation.

ATR VERDICT: PREMIER POWER shaped like the one to take from the race when narrowly beaten by a horse with experience at Newmarket in August and he could take the required step forward for King Power Racing. The 300,000gns yearling wasn't without market support in the aforementioned event and his followers could be wise to stick with him, despite that heartbreaking 1.01 exchange-matched defeat. Well Prepared was third at 40-1 on debut at Leicester, while Step To The Beat is a newcomer to watch with interest.

ATR VERDICT: Bacchalot has been running well in defeat of late and champion jockey-elect Oisin Murphy is back aboard. Preference, however, is for ROCHFORD, placed on both tries in nursery company and just 1lb higher than when a close second at Newcastle last time. Souter Johnnie has also been holding his form and can call upon the assistance of top all-weather pilot Adam Kirby on his second start since being gelded.

ATR VERDICT: KASBAAN made it back-to-back victories when landing the valuable London Mile Handicap last month and Mick Appleby's four-year-old makes plenty of appeal looking to complete the hat-trick. Course-and-distance winner Pactolus went close at Yarmouth last time and could better that effort returned to his favoured all-weather surface. He is part of a strong Stuart Williams challenge which also includes Via Serendipity and Pinnata, while not much separated Chiefofchiefs (fourth) and Seniority (fifth) when they met at Ascot and both are considered for each-way purposes.

Top Tip: KASBAAN (6)

ATR VERDICT: FANTASTIC FLYER has been in terrific form of late, winning three of her last four outings, and Dean Ivory's filly could have more to offer. Al Asef is of interest on his first start for David Simcock, and first outing since being gelded, while a return to Kempton could see a better performance from Dream Catching, who won at the course two outings ago.

ATR VERDICT: CHICAGO DOLL has benefited from a step up in trip over the past couple of months, winning two of her last three outings, and Alan King's filly is likely to have further improvement to come based on her Wolverhampton victory at the end of August. Norma ran well enough in a Listed contest at Yarmouth last month and the return to handicap company can see her be more competitive, while Mina Vagante is respected after her Sandown victory.

ATR VERDICT: MISS M was just denied in the dying strides over C&D nine days ago and the daughter of Mastercraftsman can take advantage of being 2lb well in on this occasion. Sea Of Mystery can be forgiven his latest effort when a slightly disappointing third at Southwell and has to enter calculations based on his form prior to that, while Heron could put his stamina to good use as he drops back in distance.
