ATR VERDICT: Duhallow Gesture and IF YOU SAY RUN have both had wind operations since they were last seen on the track, but narrow preference is for the latter to strike on her chasing bow for Paul Nicholls and Harry Cobden. The seven-year-old has long shaped as though this sphere would suit, and has enjoyed an extra 100 days to freshen up compared to the former. Included has plenty of experience over fences and could take advantage of any potential jumping mishaps.

Top Tip: IF YOU SAY RUN (2)

ATR VERDICT: BALLYMALIN is entitled to improve for his return to action at Warwick 16 days ago and can claim a first success since September 2017. That win actually came over this C&D in novice company, and this is a fine opening given his liking for the time of year. Kings Monarch hasn't been disgraced in better races the last twice, while Boughtbeforelunch is worth a second glance after showing good form earlier this year for Paul Webber.

ATR VERDICT: Jonjo O'Neill had a bumper winner at Warwick last week and could claim further success in this sphere with 105,000-pound purchase MEYER LANSKY. Third in an Irish point-to-point in March, the four-year-old is related to Grand National second Oscar Time and could be a nice prospect to follow for the season ahead and beyond. Philip Hobbs landed this prize with a smart type 12 months ago and runs Singapore Saga today, while Wayfinder might prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: DOLPHIN SQUARE represents a stable that have been in decent form and, despite carrying a double penalty for his wins at Exeter and Newton Abbot, he has the potential to improve further now stepping up in distance. Storm Arising won readily at Wincanton two starts ago can be forgiven his subsequent effort at the track, when making a bad mistake at the last and not being able to recover, while Mossy Fen, a 60,000 pound purchase after winning his second point-to-point outing, also warrants respect.

Top Tip: DOLPHIN SQUARE (1)

ATR VERDICT: Can You Believe It won in good style at Newton Abbot on his most recent start but a subsequent 11lb rise makes life difficult. Cape Hideaway arrives in decent form and is worth another try up in distance having improved of late. However, the vote goes to DO YOU KNOW WHAT, who won gamely over C&D two outings ago and is only 3lb higher.

Top Tip: DO YOU KNOW WHAT (6)

ATR VERDICT: CAT TIGER was last seen winning a Grade 3 chase at Auteuil 319 days ago and has been found an excellent opportunity to make a successful UK debut. He was bought for 180,000 euros by owner/rider David Maxwell prior to winning that contest and has since joined champion trainer Paul Nicholls. Old Jeroboam won both his bumper outings in the spring and must enter calculations making the switch to hurdles, as must Warwick bumper scorer Ollly The Brave.
