TIMEFORM VIEW: Preference is for LADY SCATHACH, who won twice over a mile here during the spring and returned to form back at this venue when third in a similar handicap last time. This drop in trip looks a good move and she's on a winning mark. Treasure Vale is respected on the strength of his C&D third in April, while lightly-raced duo Feather Step and Newgirlintown are others to consider.

TIMEFORM VIEW: The well-bred PROXY improved for the step up to this trip when third at Cork recently and, with further progress a distinct possibility, she gets the nod in what looks an open maiden. Yenillik is starting to look a shade exposed, but he's respected nonetheless, along with Pienta, who will be fit from a recent spin over hurdles, and the Joseph O'Brien-trained duo Eria and Irradiate.

TIMEFORM VIEW: HARVEST BOW made a bold bid when going close back in this sphere at Thurles last week and will take plenty of stopping off the same mark. She may have most to fear from the unexposed Pasley, who should appreciate this stiffer test after hitting the crossbar on handicap debut over 9.4f here 18 days ago. With his stablemate Royal Aide due to run at the Curragh on Sunday, Tirmizi is best of the rest.
