ATR VERDICT: THE VERY MAN didn't run his race when well beaten at Fairyhouse in April, but shaped prior to that in victory at Navan as though a switch to hurdling would suit and he has the chance to bounce back now. Gordon Elliott has won this with Labaik and Samcro in recent years, suggesting the aforementioned gelding is held in high regard, and he can prove too strong for Ego Des Mottes, who finished second at Galway on his Irish debut last month. Beacon Edge might prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: IAMASTARTOO has been a model of consistency and deserves to land one of these. The six-year-old won't get too many better opportunities than this and is fancied to strike for an in-form trainer. Shumaker has a 5lb penalty to carry for scoring at Fairyhouse over the weekend, while Tomeric, another recent winner, is also taken seriously on his handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: LUCKY ROAD has progressed nicely over the summer, winning three races in a row, and might not be done with yet despite a further 10lb rise. Gavin Cromwell's charge clearly appreciates a sound surface and he remains open to much improvement while the ground remains decent. Ask Nile looks a tricky ride but performed well when supported in the betting at Navan 18 days ago, while Morosini, third in a valuable handicap at Listowel last month, is also noted.

4		6/214P-1	SWORDSMAN 16 br g Doyen - Battle Over	5 11 - 1	J W Kennedy G Elliott	-

ATR VERDICT: JAN MAAT boasts a solid level of form over the larger obstacles and he improved from his Galway effort to get closer to Wicklow Brave at Listowel last month. Those performances can see him get back to winning ways in a contest his trainer has won three times since 2009. Daly Tiger and Swordsman won their respective debuts over fences and the former, who should be better suited by this distance, is marginally preferred for silver medal purposes.

ATR VERDICT: TOUT EST PERMIS progressed nicely throughout last season, winning the Troytown at Navan and a Grade 2 at Thurles until not appearing to stay in the Irish National at Fairyhouse in April. Noel Meade's string are in fine fettle at present and he could have further improvement to come being a six-year-old. Balko Des Flos would have likely finished second to Kemboy at Aintree had he not made a bad mistake at the final fence and appears a solid threat, along with Alpha Des Obeaux, who ended last season with a solid effort in the Bobbyjo at Fairyhouse.

ATR VERDICT: ALLDUCKORNODINNER kept on well for second over 2m5f at Sligo three weeks ago and is expected to step up on that effort now granted this stiffer test. Oscar Lantern is 1lb lower than his previous chase success and should go well, while Court Tycoon was touched off over 2m5f at Roscommon last time and could feasibly defy a 4lb rise now stepped up in distance.

ATR VERDICT: FANTASIO D'ALENE performed with credit when third over this trip at Fairyhouse in April and rates the one to beat in the hope he'll run to a similar level of form on his return. Long March is entitled to improve for the fitting of a tongue-tie and is worth a market check now debuting for Gavin Cromwell, while Mighty Tom can step forward from his opening sixth at Listowel.
