ATR VERDICT: ZEB SPIRIT has done little wrong since joining Olly Murphy and being sent hurdling, backing up his Fontwell success with a solid placed effort at Market Rasen, and he looks capable of giving weight and a beating to these rivals. A line can be put through Lady Shanawell's latest effort at Hexham, where she was pulled up after her saddle slipped, and Ben Haslam's Cartmel winner deserves another chance. Of those switching from the Flat, Frankadore makes most appeal.

ATR VERDICT: MARIA MAGDALENA brings a wealth of hurdling experience to the table, with her seven efforts including two victories, and despite disappointing slightly at Huntingdon last time, she looks like the one they all have to beat. The other pair with NH form appear up against it, so it could be up to Flat recruits Cool Possibility and Blazing Dreams to ask most questions of the selection. Both are similarly rated on the level and should give a good account if taking to this game.

ATR VERDICT: Sam Spinner was much the best of these over timber, finishing runner-up in last season's Stayers' Hurdle at Cheltenham, and could easily make a winning start to his chasing career, but a chance is taken on the less-exposed BEAKSTOWN. He quickly progressed through the hurdle ranks last term, impressively winning a Grade 2 at Warwick only two months after his maiden success, and the strapping son of Stowaway will almost certainly improve for this switch to fences. Mr Antolini is another exciting addition to the chasing ranks.

ATR VERDICT: Jatiluwhi made it three wins on the bounce in this company at Sedgefield 15 days ago, but this appears a more competitive event on paper and he has a fair amount of weight to give to his rivals. Therefore, it might be worth siding with his stable companion, KEEP ROLLING, who shaped as though the step up in distance would benefit him when racing in bumpers. Dino Boy, West Cork and Eclair On Line add further spice to an interesting event.

ATR VERDICT: SKY PIRATE ran well for a long way in the Kim Muir at the Cheltenham Festival before not appearing to see out the distance in the closing stages. The handicapper eased him 2lb for that effort and the drop in trip, combined with Jonjo O'Neill's 3lb claim, could see him back to winning ways. Dimple is likely to give a bold account from the front end, with jumping being his strongest attribute, while Crievehill and Cracking Find are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: I JUST KNOW reverts to timber off a figure 19lb lower than his fences mark of 145 and forms part of a strong Sue Smith challenge alongside stablemate Silva Eclipse, who proved to be a useful operator over hurdles last term. Course winners Teescomponents Lad and Lough Salt (won this in 2017) are of real interest, while Jacks Last Hope is 8lb lower than when third in this last season and was a winner at Sedgefield last month.

ATR VERDICT: THEFLYINGPORTRAIT landed the spoils in this 12 months ago and despite being rated 7lb higher this time around, Jennie Candlish's veteran arrives in top form following a commanding win at Kelso last month. The Paddy Pie rates as the pick of Sue Smith's pair and proved to be a consistent performer over any distance last season, while Ecu De La Noverie beat the useful Mister Fisher over hurdles last term before shaping nicely over fences and he remains well treated.

ATR VERDICT: CAPTAIN MOIRETTE looked a useful prospect in the novice ranks last term, with the only blot on his copybook coming in a hot renewal of the Scottish Champion Hurdle, and could go one better than the stable's handy operator Midnight Shadow, who was second in this 12 months ago. Lucky Lover Boy was another to impress last season and returns to hurdling having won his last three in this sphere, while Donald McCain's pair of Nayati and Beach Break have match fitness on their side.
