ATR VERDICT: Alfa Mix is race fit and arrives following a pleasing fourth at Roscommon, but EMAIL ROSE is potentially much the best of these. He was fifth (of 29) in a smart maiden hurdle only two starts ago, a race won by the high-class Buildmeupbuttercup, and can be forgiven a lacklustre performance in bumper company at Leopardstown last time. This represents a fantastic opportunity for him to really get his racing career going, with Steel Tornado an each-way player.

Top Tip: EMAIL ROSE (1)
Watch out for: ALFA MIX (3)

ATR VERDICT: LLEYTON is 5lb higher than when landing this contest 12 months ago but looks to have a solid chance, having performed well on his last couple of NH outings. Although struggling in a Flat race at Thurles subsequently, that run will have put him spot on for today's assignment and it will be disappointing if he doesn't go close. Deauville Society didn't get far at Gowran latest, unseating Darragh O'Keeffe at the first, but her two efforts prior to that were encouraging and she warrants respect, with Athloman Cottage and the first-time blinkered Macho Mover other names to note.

Top Tip: LLEYTON (1)

Watch out for: DEAUVILLE SOCIETY (7)

ATR VERDICT: Envol Pierji posted a couple of solid efforts last season and holds sound claims on his return to action, but a race-fit MOUNTAINMORE shades the verdict in receipt of 7lb. The form of her narrow third on her hurdles debut at Roscommon (2m4f) was done no harm when the runner-up finished third in a decent maiden at Punchestown on Tuesday and Willie Mullins' mare won't be inconvenienced by stretching out in trip. Clonmel runner-up Hesamanothisword also merits consideration.

ATR VERDICT: Rachael Blackmore throws her leg back over Woodbrook Boy after the pair came to grief three out at Fairyhouse last Saturday, and he merits shortlist inclusion, as does Tintown Robin, who might appreciate cutting back in trip after only managing sixth over 3m at Clonmel. However, the vote goes to CARRIGREADY, twice a winner at this venue and 7lb lower than when runner-up over fences at Navan last time. Veteran performer Bellgrove also has a squeak.

Top Tip: CARRIGREADY (8)

ATR VERDICT: LUCKY PHIL shaped with promise on her chasing debut at Sligo last month and followed that effort up with her first victory over timber at Gowran 12 days ago. The return to fences is unlikely to pose any concern for the daughter of Doyen with that success under her belt. Ask Heather is respected on what she achieved in handicap hurdles earlier in the year, while Mohart's win at Downpatrick last time can see him enter calculations.

Top Tip: LUCKY PHIL (6)

ATR VERDICT: PISTOL SHOOT took a big step forward in his development when second at Perth last month and, given his liking for testing ground, is fancied to land the spoils for Gordon Elliott. The seven-year-old doesn't have many miles on the clock for this trainer, and won't mind this drop in distance. Roney was second here in August and is unexposed over longer trips, while Golazo jumped poorly over hurdles at Gowran Park 13 days ago but might concentrate more in this sphere.

Watch out for: RONEY (10)

ATR VERDICT: SILK WORM (second) accounted for Infinite Glory (third) at Listowel 34 days ago and that line of form appears to be worth following. The selection receives 4lb again being a year younger than the latter, and is expected to take a step forward on just her second start under Rules. Hopefully is surely better than what she showed when down the field at Listowel in September, while The Rocking Chair, who was fourth at Clonmel a fortnight ago, is another name to consider.
