ATR VERDICT: Miss Honey Ryder was twice a winner in bumpers last season and wasn't disgraced when pitched into Grade 3 company at Punchestown in the spring. However, a chance is taken on WHITEHOTCHILLIFILI, who beat a useful cast when impressing on debut at Southwell last December and the form of her subsequent outings can't be sniffed at. She was down the field in Aintree's Grade 2 bumper for mares, but mixed it with some handy operators at Listed level before that at Sandown and has the class to play a leading role in this contest. Lunar Baby is entitled to appreciate the switch to hurdling, with Rules debutant Rarest Diamond worthy of a market check having joined Colin Tizzard.

Top Tip: WHITEHOTCHILLIFILI (12)

Watch out for: MISS HONEY RYDER (4)
