ATR VERDICT: ANYTIME WILL DO was travelling as well as anything before a bad mistake at the last at Huntingdon in February, and could still be worth following after a 240-day break for Dan Skelton. The six-year-old is sure to have been intensively schooled over the autumn, and can defy a mark of 135. Umndeni ended his campaign last year with an easy Taunton success and is worth noting, while Skandiburg, twice a winner over hurdles, also merits consideration.

Top Tip: ANYTIME WILL DO (1)

Watch out for: UMNDENI (3)
