Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: DUBAI TRADITION was firmly on the right path before something seemed amiss at Goodwood last time and he's bred to be well suited by synthetic surfaces, so it's worth taking a chance on him to get back on the up and defy a mark of 88 following a break. Hat-trick seeker Paths of Glory is an obvious danger along with El Misk.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: NSNAS found only a useful sort too good despite obvious greenness at Lingfield on debut and, with the benefit of experience, he can find enough improvement to get the better of Shauyra, who was impressive last time but has to concede a penalty. Classic Design flopped at Southwell on debut but his SP suggests he can do better at some stage.
