ATR VERDICT: CASTEL ANGELO has improved with each run, particularly since being campaigned at this track, and if he builds on his recent second here then Henry Candy's colt can open his account. Never Said Nothing wasn't far away at Musselburgh last time but is up 3lb as a result, while Hermano Bello won well here two starts ago and could be a factor despite a poor run at Wolverhampton last time.

ATR VERDICT: MABO did the job well at Ffos Las last month and has run two respectable races in defeat since then, including when fourth over 7f here last time. Grace Harris' grey got going all too late on that latest outing so should relish the extra furlong here. Duke Of North has filled the runner-up spot on his last two outings under Isobel Francis so is respected now reunited with the young rider, while Red Cossack has been challenging the principals at Chelmsford so could go well here too.

ATR VERDICT: PIKE CORNER CROSS has really got his act together on the all-weather in recent months and certainly wasn't winning out of turn at Wolverhampton last time. A winner off a mark of 56 in the past at this track, he is still 2lb lower than that rating and could be tough to stop. Flying Sakhee was well beaten off 4lb higher last time but went close off this mark the time before, while the assessor may have been a little lenient with Cottingham by dropping him 1lb for a fair fifth here last time.

ATR VERDICT: Colouring ran well for second here last time and is interesting back up in trip, while Streeton was not disgraced on debut at Wolverhampton and is another to note. It could pay to focus on the penalised horses here, though. Danyah let favourite backers down at Haydock last time but did win well on his first outing at Nottingham, though RAAEB gets the vote. Saeed bin Suroor's colt followed up a Doncaster success with a decent second at Newmarket last time, pulling clear of the rest despite being well beaten by the winner. He can get back to winning ways in this.

ATR VERDICT: Urban Highway showed a decent finishing kick to score at Brighton last time, while Global Hope has a pair of wins in his last four starts and should find this easier than the Ayr Bronze Cup he competed in last time. Royal Dynasty showed promise last year but it may be asking too much of him to be successful after over a year off, so DESERT FOX is preferred. Mike Murphy's gelding was a solid second at Chelmsford last time and gets another chance off the same mark in this.

ATR VERDICT: Camachess' winning run was abruptly ended at Newmarket 122 days ago but perhaps a break will have freshened her up, while Iconic Knight has found just one too good on the last three occasions and deserves to claim one of these soon. Preference, though, is for Roger Charlton's TOTAL COMMITMENT. Twice a winner in his last three starts, the three-year-old doesn't have many miles on the clock and is expected to develop into a nice handicapper given time.

ATR VERDICT: ARABIST made it third time lucky at Haydock under Frankie Dettori 47 days ago and might be underestimated by an opening handicap mark of 81 ahead of his all-weather bow. The three-year-old should be suited by this slight step up in trip, and can prove too good for Singing Sheriff, who finished second here earlier this month after a 123-day break, and Pirate King, who could improve now in the care of Charlie Fellowes.

ATR VERDICT: CONTRAST has won his last two by narrow margins, only going up 3lb for the most recent of those triumphs at Lingfield, and further success could be forthcoming for Mick Easterby's charge. The Yorkshire-based handler has only had seven runners here in the last five years, winning once, and is clearly selective with what he brings to Surrey. Trailboss had plenty go against him when fourth at Wolverhampton a fortnight ago, while Miss Blondell impressed when second at Bath in September.
