ATR VERDICT: AGGY WITH IT, who was pitched into a hot bumper at Aintree on her debut, won with her head in her chest when next sighted at Market Rasen and is of real interest now switching to hurdles on her first outing of the season. Whiteoak Fleur was another to take part in that aforementioned Aintree contest and she has made the podium on three runs over hurdles since then. Fejoada's form in France entitles her to plenty of respect on her first outing for Robert Walford, while Floressa seems sure to be popular following a pair of handy performances in bumpers last term and the form of her Cheltenham second has been given a huge boost with the third and fourth in that contest winning on their respective hurdle debuts subsequently.

Top Tip: AGGY WITH IT (2)
