Long Handicap: Right Royals Day 9 - 6

ATR VERDICT: SILENT STEPS fairly bolted up on her first outing post wind surgery at Chepstow earlier this month and an 8lb rise in the ratings might not be enough to anchor her if arriving in the same mood. Kentford Mallard defied odds of 33/1 to make a winning debut over fences here in May and she should remain competitive off 6lb higher, although a race-fit, and in-form, The Boola Bee is feared most.

Top Tip: SILENT STEPS (4)
Watch out for: THE BOOLA BEE (6)

ATR VERDICT: King Alfonso backed up his course hurdles victory with a seven-length chase success at Ffos Las and he won't give up on the hat-trick without a fight, while Truckers Highway has to be respected following his comeback win at Uttoxeter earlier this month. However, FIELD EXHIBITION was most impressive when scoring at Hereford recently and she is taken to follow up under a 7lb penalty.

ATR VERDICT: Sam Brown has some excellent bumper/hurdles form under his belt and is a fascinating player on his first outing since December 2017, while Worthy Farm, Diger Daudaie and Know The Score are other chasing debutants to note. However, the one they all have to beat is Dan Skelton's SUPREMEELY LUCKY, who impressed when landing a Uttoxeter novice hurdle on his latest outing in March and is expected to be even better over fences.

Top Tip: SUPREMEELY LUCKY (2)

ATR VERDICT: All eyes will be on PAPA TANGO CHARLY, who transferred to Jonjo O'Neill for 440,000 pounds in April following a taking win in a Liscarroll point-to-point in March. The stable vibes are that he could be a star of the future and the four-year-old may take some beating on his Rules debut. Israel Champ is another to impress when winning between the flags and has now joined David Pipe, while newcomers Off The Planet, Midnight River and Alfsboy all require a market check representing leading stables.

Top Tip: PAPA TANGO CHARLY (11)

Watch out for: ISRAEL CHAMP (5)

Long Handicap: Cotton End 9 - 8

ATR VERDICT: QUEEN'S MAGIC backed up her course victory last month with a comfortable win at Perth last time, and makes plenty of appeal in search of a hat-trick, switching back to the handicap ranks off a handy-looking rating. West Coast Flyer got the better of recent Stratford winner Yccs Portocervo (second) over two miles here in July and both head into this with leading claims, while Larkbarrow Lad shaped nicely over timber last season and there is every chance his course-and-distance reappearance 26 days ago will have put him spot on for a big run in this. The Vollan, Colditz Castle and Bold Record are others who catch the eye in a competitive heat.

ATR VERDICT: AGGY WITH IT, who was pitched into a hot bumper at Aintree on her debut, won with her head in her chest when next sighted at Market Rasen and is of real interest now switching to hurdles on her first outing of the season. Whiteoak Fleur was another to take part in that aforementioned Aintree contest and she has made the podium on three runs over hurdles since then. Fejoada's form in France entitles her to plenty of respect on her first outing for Robert Walford, while Floressa seems sure to be popular following a pair of handy performances in bumpers last term and the form of her Cheltenham second has been given a huge boost with the third and fourth in that contest winning on their respective hurdle debuts subsequently.

ATR VERDICT: Paul Nicholls went to 150,000 pounds to secure the purchase of YOUNG BUCK, who caught the eye with a commanding five-length victory in the pointing field in February. He wears the famous colours of the Stewart Family and could take some beating if repeating that Nenagh effort on his Rules debut. Royal Ascot winner The Grand Visir has to be respected switching back to hurdles despite struggling in this sphere last term, with Cool Destination and Big Shark, who is making his debut for Philip Hobbs, others to keep an eye on.

Top Tip: YOUNG BUCK (8)
Watch out for: THE GRAND VISIR (7)
