TIMEFORM VIEW: THE BOOLA BEE should probably have gained her third win from 4 starts this season at Wincanton last week, left with too much to do under a seemingly over-confident ride, and can quickly make amends off the same mark. Kentford Mallard showed much-improved form when making a winning chase debut here in May and is feared most.

TIMEFORM VIEW: ROBINSHILL took a big step back in the right direction over hurdles at Warwick on return 3 weeks ago and is potentially well treated if building on that. Field Exhibition had plenty in hand when winning at Hereford last week so is the obvious threat under a penalty.

He was unable to get his head in front over fence last term but appeals as being on a handy mark on balance and, having not been seen to best effect on return, today could well be his day. This is a race containing depth however, with Supremely Lucky, Worthy Farm and Chinensis just a trio of possible dangers.

TIMEFORM VIEW: PINK EYED PEDRO is a better chaser than hurdler but there's quite a big discrepancy in his marks and these fixed-brush hurdles should suit him well, so he's worth taking a chance on in a competitive series final. Larkbarrow Lad is a threat despite his shaky temperament and another good effort from Hattaab seems assured.

Of those with jumping experience, Absolute Jaffa and Whiteoak Fleur make most appeal.
