ATR VERDICT: FRONT VIEW lost little in defeat when second behind Champion Bumper winner Envoi Allen on his hurdles debut at Down Royal last time and is expected to put that initial experience to good use to take closer order. Any money for Willie Mullins' new recruit, Jon Snow, who has won on the level in France, would be notable, while Pienta makes some appeal on his Navan third in September.

Top Tip: FRONT VIEW (7)
Watch out for: JON SNOW (9)

ATR VERDICT: Midnight Run has been absent since landing a Naas bumper in February and is worth monitoring closely in the betting having chased home subsequent Champion Bumper winner Envoi Allen in a Listed contest at Navan back in December. Narrow preference, however, is for Willie Mullins' Grade 1 Punchestown bumper hero COLREEVY, who is expected to have been well schooled ahead of his hurdling debut assignment. Fire Away drops back from 3m and has place claims along with recent Clonmel fourth Goodbye Someday.

Top Tip: COLREEVY (14)

ATR VERDICT: GOLDEN GLEN opened her account over the extended 2m5f at Tramore last time and is expected to give another good account, despite dropping back in distance. Big runs could also be on the cards from recent Limerick second Lily Trotter and Macho Mover, who had plenty in hand when striking over this trip at Tramore having been fitted with blinkers (which are retained here).

Top Tip: GOLDEN GLEN (6)

ATR VERDICT: TOP MOON arrives in decent form having placed in a pair of handicap hurdles at Listowel and Galway and the four-year-old can gain his second victory over timber despite a 3lb rise for his latest effort. Fauguernon could have more to offer switching to handicap company for the first time, while the drop in trip is unlikely to pose any issue for Mr Smith, who seeks a hat-trick in this sphere.

ATR VERDICT: TOUCH OF OSCAR improved with each outing over hurdles and got off the mark at Clonmel in May, having benefited from stepping up in distance on his last couple of starts, and the five-year-old could have more to offer as he switches to fences for the first time. Stones And Roses placed on his chasing bow at Wexford last month and can enter the reckoning along with Roman Rock, who unseated in that contest but was running a much better race than had been the case over hurdles previously.

Top Tip: TOUCH OF OSCAR (12)

Watch out for: STONES AND ROSES (9)

ATR VERDICT: Sumos Novios impressed when second on his Galway reappearance three weeks ago, but he is delicate and hasn't had much racing for an 11-year-old. Just Get Cracking landed a gamble at Clonmel when last seen in February and might still be ahead of the assessor, but this can go the way of Gordon Elliott's GLOBAL JACKPOT. Second behind a soft-ground specialist at Down Royal 16 days ago, he finished well to prove best of the remainder and the booking of UK-based rider Daryl Jacob catches the eye.

ATR VERDICT: FENNO'S STORM dead-heated for first in a point-to-point at Moig South two weeks ago and has to be taken very seriously on that form. That effort can be upgraded as it came after a six-month break and, given that he finished third in the Punchestown Champion Hunter Chase, sets a very high form standard. It Came To Pass beat On The Fringe at Killarney during the spring and is dangerous, while Macs Legend is another to consider.
