ATR VERDICT: SUPREMEELY LUCKY held his own in useful company over timber last season and made an encouraging chasing debut when second in a competitive event at Worcester. He would arguably have won on that occasion but for a blunder just as the race was beginning to take shape and can capitalise on this opportunity to open his fencing account. Just Your Type was last seen falling in the National Hunt Chase at the Cheltenham Festival and before that was a creditable sixth in the Eider. He can keep the selection honest, but will need Dan Skelton's seven-year-old to misfire if he is to prevail.

Top Tip: SUPREMEELY LUCKY (2)

Watch out for: JUST YOUR TYPE (1)
