- Progressive in novice hurdles last season, usually well backed and successful at Exeter. Showed plenty of potential after 8 months off on chase debut/return and should improve.
- Has looked guilty on hurdles and made a discouraging chase debut after 11 months off at Chepstow 35 days ago.
- Runner-up a couple of times off similar marks last season and possibly still needed the run at Hereford 29 days ago. Dropped 2 lb and he’s one to bear in mind.
- Landed a bit of a touch when making all over hurdles at Market Rasen in February but was set a difficult task on first start since leaving Graeme McPherson on chasing debut, hanging/jumping left.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

CHAMBARD has the physique for chasing and duly showed plenty to work on when second on his return at Sandown last month. He’s sure to improve, especially if tidying up in the jumping department. Town Parks rates as the chief threat, having possibly still needed the run at Hereford, ahead of Midnight Maestro and Ciaos Giace.

Timeform says: Patchy record in this sphere, but won twice off higher marks during the spring and took a step back in the right direction at Musselburgh last time. (Forecast 13.00)

TIMEFORM VIEW:

LITTLE RORY MAC finally got the job done over hurdles at Market Rasen last week after a number of eye catching efforts, and looks capable of following up under a penalty. The Game Is A Foot bounced back to his best when runner-up at Lingfield recently and should ensure the selection doesn't have things all his own way.
