Timeform says:
- Bred for jumping and readily accounted for some moderate ex-Flat horses when scoring readily at Ludlow. Took rise in class when following up in the Wensleydale Juvenile Hurdle at Wetherby. (Forecast 5.00)
- Fair maiden on Flat and seen to good effect when making all on hurdles debut at Roscommon in August. Better still when runner-up in Prestbury Juvenile Hurdle here last month. (Forecast 2.25)
- Fair maiden on Flat (stays 1½m) and left that form behind at the first attempt over hurdles when landing a heavy-ground contest at Ludlow last month. Bare form needs improving on. (Forecast 12.00)
- Fair maiden on the Flat and seen to good effect when making all on hurdles debut at Roscommon in August. Similar form under a penalty a month later and has since left A. Slattery (Forecast 26.00)
- Improved since hooded, landing 2m handicap at Newton Abbot in August and back on the scoreboard at Cheltenham on Friday. This is tougher, though. (Forecast 12.00)
- Wont 1½m Flat handicap on soft at Hamilton in September. No short-term promise on recent Newcastle hurdles debut and he's surely right up against it here. (Forecast 15.00)
- Possesses the raw ability to be a factor if jumping passes the test. (Forecast 15.00)

TIMEFORM VIEW:
- BOTOX HAS progressed from his debut when runner-up in the Prestbury Juvenile Hurdle here last time (a race that's provided a few smart juveniles) and that performance is the best on offer. Langer Dan has passed both tests so far with flying colours and has to be feared, for all he has to concede weight all round, with Group Stage another to consider.

Timeform says:
- Much improved for switch to fences during the summer, rattling off a Stratford hat-trick. All may not have been well with him switched to a novice at this track in October.
- Useful 3-time winner in bumpers in 2017/18 and matched that tally from 4 starts in his novice season over hurdles. Confirmed promise of chase debut when landing the odds at Wetherby last month.
- Grade 2 novice hurdle winner last season but pulled up in Ballymore on final start. Very much a chaser on looks but hasn’t set the world alight over fences yet. May yet come good.
- Won both starts over hurdles in 2018/19. Came up well short pitched into Grade 1 company in April but he’s an expensive winning pointer representing very powerful connections.
- Winner of Grade 2 Rossington Main at Haydock as a novice hurdler. Ran well in Swinton Hurdle back when in May and opening second in this sphere at Warwick a sound platform to build on.
- Useful bumper winner who lasted success twice over hurdles at up to 22f last term. Ended the campaign in disappointing fashion but he’s certainly built for fences.
TIMEFORM VIEW: A cracking novice chase in prospect with MISTER FISHER taken to build on the promise of his runner-up effort at Warwick last month now tackling this trip for the first time. Good Boy Bobby is already useful and his straightforward nature is an asset, while Beakstown has yet to fully fire over fences but that may change at some point.

- Relished the switch to chasing last season, winning at Southwell and Ayr before a fine run in the Grade 1 Maghull at Aintree. Pleasing reappearance and return to left-handed track will suit. (Forecast 3.00)
- Likeable mare who completed the hat-trick on return at Chepstow. Every chance the assessor now has her measure and she drops markedly in trip. (Forecast 13.00)
- Dual hurdle winner in France who won 3 times over fences last term. Unseated rider on reappearance but shaped as though back in reasonable nick at Ascot last month. (Forecast 6.50)
- Hit the frame in the Grand Annual in both 2017 and 2018. Rare off-day in the jumping department at Galway in August and season may well be geared around another busy spring campaign. (Forecast 9.00)

Notes:
- Relisted to just 3 runs since, beaten a long way in that aforementioned race this summer. Has had a wind op. (Forecast 8.00)
- Better than ever when landing a gamble for Harry Fry at Southwell in August 2017. Restricted to just 3 runs since, beaten a long way in that aforementioned race this summer. (Forecast 8.50)

Timeform View: The majority of these have plenty to prove, but DESTRIER took really well to fences this time last year, and, with an encouraging reappearance under his belt, he looks the way to go, particularly returned to a left-handed track. Ballywood was slightly better than the result at Ascot last month and he heads the opposition.

Jockey Colours: Yellow, emerald green star, yellow sleeves, purple armbands, emerald green cap, yellow star.

Timeform says: Bumper winner who didn't need to improve to deservedly open his hurdles account on return at this venue in October (21f). Coped well with the mud when second in the Hyde Novices' Hurdle back here.  (Forecast 5.00)

Jockey Colours: Emerald green, dark green sleeves, dark green and emerald green quartered cap.

Timeform says: Very smart hurdler who proved better than ever when winning Listed handicap chase on British debut a year ago (23.8f). Landed the odds without too much fuss back hurdling last month.  (Forecast 6.50)

| 3  | 2/21 | 37-24 | IGOR 22 b g Presenting - Stravinsky Dance | 6 10 - 12 | Mr S Waley-Cohen, N J Henderson | 132 |

Jockey Colours: Brown, orange seams and sleeves, quartered cap.

Timeform says: Took form to a new level when landing 14-runner maiden hurdle at Ascot last month. Limit may not have been reached (that just his fourth start) but he isn't really crying out for this trip.  (Forecast 5.00)

| 4  | 2/21 | 37-24 | KILTEALY BRIGGS (IRE) 24 b g Fame And Glory - Baby Briggs | 5 10 - 12t | Adrian Heskin, Jamie Snowden | 125 |

Jockey Colours: Red, brown sleeves and cap.

Timeform says: Likely to be a much easier assignment for him this time.  (Forecast 5.00)

Timeform View: This has a very open look to it, but MOSSY FEN defends an unbeaten record under Rules and is a useful stayer in the making, so he gets the nod. Valtor saw off Redford Road back hurdling at Ascot last month and is taken to confirm that form despite these revised terms as his chase ability offers hope he can do better still.

TIMEFORM VIEW: CALL ME LORD has a fitness edge over chief-form rivals Pentland Hills and Ch'tibello, and in receipt of weight from the pair, this could be the time to catch him. Pentland Hills enjoyed a faultless juvenile campaign and is prominent in the Champion Hurdle betting so he has to be accorded respect.

Las. Headed close home in the Greatwood here but this asks a different question.

Hurdle at Wetherby last time and now markedly back in trip, but he looks up against it.

Flat Turf: 0 - 0 - 0 - 0

Jockey Colours: Emerald green, dark green sleeves, dark green and emerald green quartered cap

Timeform says: Tough, progressive hurdl er who goes well in the mud and held on gamely to make a winning return at Ffos Las. Headed close home in the Greatwood here but this asks a different question.

Jockey Colours: Orange, black star and star on cap

Timeform says: Smart on Flat, stays 15f. Fairly useful form over hurdles, winning 3 of his 4 starts, including 8-runner minor event at Warrnambool in May. Adds a bit of intrigue to the race. NON RUNNER. Read more... (Forecast 10:01)

Timeform says:

- Excellent first season over timber, narrowly denied by Lady Buttons in Doncaster Grade 2. Behind that rival again in listed Mares’ Hurdle at Wetherby latest but she needs to brush up her jumping. (Forecast 12.00)
- Point winner who looked a useful prospect when landing mares’ novice hurdles at Fontwell and Plumpton in February/March. Shade disappointing in a C&D listed race and opening mark asks for more. (Forecast 26.00)
- Point/bumper scorer who landed 2 novice hurdles last term. Disappointed final 2 starts but right back on her game when runner-up on last month’s reappearance/handicap debut at Ascot. (Forecast 11.00)
- Ready winner of newcomers hurdle at Auteuil and comfortably landed short odds on British debut at Perth in April. Promising third in listed Mares' Hurdle at Wetherby last time (Indefatigable second). (Forecast 11.00)
- Bumper winner in France who was progressive over hurdles in 2017/18 for this stable, winning mares listed race over this C&D. Finished with running left in the Greatwood and has same mark here. (Forecast 4.50)
- Improved model last term (1 chase win, 1 hurdle win) both chase efforts this autumn hardly brimming with promise. Has a bit to prove back hurdles in first-time cheekpieces. (Forecast 34.00)
- Straightforward task when winning for second time over hurdles at Market Rasen in March. Set a stiff task and likely needed the run in a 3m Grade 3 at Haydock so this a better race to judge her on. (Forecast 17.00)

TIMEFORM VIEW:
A big-field handicap, but DAME DE COMPAGNIE rather stands out on the back of an eye-catching run over an inadequate trip in the Greatwood Hurdle on last month's return from a lengthy absence. There’s a chance she is a fair way ahead of her mark so has to be the play. Queen’s Cave certainly won’t lack for stamina and she commands respect, along with Lust For Glory, a stablemate of the selection.

Timeform 1-2-3:

2: QUEENS CAVE (10)
3: LUST FOR GLORY (3)
