ATR VERDICT: In a moderate contest the marginal preference is for RIGHTPLACERIGHTIME, based upon his fifth-placed finish in a similar event over C&D last month and that followed an encouraging effort at Wexford. Golden Nomad has displayed enough promise to suggest that he can make the frame in a race of this nature, while Colour Me In and Monty's Mission are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: City Ballerina and Rhythm Divine are the pick of those with previous hurdling experience but the level they set is not very high. With that in mind, the preference is for YUKON LIL, who won a Listed bumper at Gowran Park last season and she could outclass her rivals this afternoon. Walk Me Home is a well-bred newcomer and any market support would have to be noted.

ATR VERDICT: TIGER TAP TAP was a bit disappointing when well held on his seasonal return in a Grade 3 over 2m here last month. That said, he was ninth in the Triumph Hurdle at Cheltenham and he should take plenty of beating now dropped in grade. Ashdale Bob displayed plenty of promise on his racecourse debut at Punchestown and he should not be underestimated this afternoon. The shortlist is completed by Bold Assassin and Henry Brown.

ATR VERDICT: Plenty of these have claims but none more so than AN MARCACH, who put in a career best when finishing a close second at Cork eight days ago. A 4lb rise for that effort is fair and he may still have more improvement left to come. Crack On Corrie also hit the crossbar last time out and she is an obvious threat to the selection, while Golden Symphony and Midland Millie both have solid each-way claims.

ATR VERDICT: BAPAUME looked in real need of the run when tiring quickly and fading out of sight at Fairyhouse on his chasing bow and a line can perhaps be drawn through that performance. A return to anything like the best of his hurdles form should see the six-year-old much too good for the opposition here. Star Max has looked useful in his two outings over fences so far and can give the selection most to think about, with School Boy Hours and Monkshood others to keep onside.

ATR VERDICT: Course-and-distance winner CONRIGHT BOY was only headed late on when attempting to make all last time and could last home this time around off a 1lb higher mark on a slightly better surface. Muyam Spirit is an interesting recruit to the handicap chase ranks and has looked a consistent performer so far, while Lacken Bridge should also go well off his current mark.

ATR VERDICT: DAPHNE MOON has made the podium on both starts so far, including when seen over course and distance on debut, and Gordon Elliott's charge gets the nod in the finale. Stablemate Beth Horan is closely related to The Romford Pele and is likely to be thereabouts, while Joseph O'Brien's Miss Pernickety could return to the form of her outings in the spring in first-time blinkers.
