Jockey Colours:
- Fontdaniel winner who struck at the third time of asking over hurdles in 25.7f Hereford novice in March. Shaped well in face of a stiff task on chase bow here on return and can do better.
- Irish point winner who left form of his hurdling debut behind when off the mark here in February. Disappointed next 2 starts but resumed progress to win handicap chase at Market Rasen when last seen in May but bit to prove back chasing.
- Useful novice hurdler who didn't really shine in 2 runs over fences earlier last season. Back to winning ways in handicap hurdle at Market Rasen when last seen in May but bit to prove back chasing.
- Fairly useful winner over hurdles and already better over fences, just denied on chase debut at Southwell before going one better at Exeter. Open to further improvement.
- Light blue, red braces, white sleeves, dark blue cap, yellow star.
- Royal blue and white stripes, yellow sleeves and cap.

Timeform View: This looks competitive with plenty open to improvement, the vote going to NOTACHANCE, who had more in hand than the bare margin suggests at Exeter 5 weeks ago. The dangers are headed by Hes No Trouble and Court Master.
Progressive over hurdles and far from disgraced from a stiff opening mark when fifth at Ascot on chasing Light blue, red braces, white sleeves, red armlets, light blue and red quartered cap
