ATR VERDICT: BOSS MAN FRED hasn't put a foot wrong in three hurdle starts thus far, following on from a point-to-point victory last March, and he produced a career-best performance when landing a C&D handicap by nine lengths last time. There looks to be plenty more to come from Dan Skelton's charge and he could take this class rise in his stride. Champagne Well has finished runner-up in Grade 2 races at Cheltenham the last twice and he looks sure to give another good account, with Ramses De Teillee an interesting player switching back to hurdles after wind surgery.

Top Tip: BOSS MAN FRED (3)

Watch out for: CHAMPAGNE WELL (1)
