ATR VERDICT: THREE C'S had over three lengths in hand at the line when scoring over 7f here last week and, also proven over a mile, George Boughey's six-year-old is taken to follow up under a 5lb penalty. Double Reflection performed with credit when runner-up over this trip at Chelmsford last time and is respected now switching surface, while it is possible first-time cheekpieces could unlock improvement from Chiavari. Top Tip: THREE C'S (6) Watch out for: CHIAVARI (1)

Long Handicap: Port Lairge 8 - 11, Amber Rock 8 - 10 ATR VERDICT: Atalanta Queen and Palazzo have demonstrated their effectiveness on Fibresand in the past, though both need to prove they have the stamina for this assignment now stepping up from 1m. With that in mind, OPTIMA PETAMUS, who won over an extended 1m4f at Newcastle in December, gets the verdict. He wasn't beaten far off 2lb higher at Newcastle two starts ago and can be forgiven his latest effort at Wolverhampton over shorter. Top Tip: OPTIMA PETAMUS (7) Watch out for: ATALANTA QUEEN (6)

6 (4)		22	SUR MER 9 b f Equiano - Miss Villefranche	3 8 - 9	Hayley Turner R M H Cowell	-

ATR VERDICT: RODIN has steadily improved with each outing to date and sets the standard on his two recent efforts over this trip at Chelmsford, when beaten by less than a length on each occasion. Sur Mer likely has better to offer for Robert Cowell, for all she needs to step up on her C&D effort last time in order to figure. The pick of the remainder may be Capla Spirit in the first-time visor.

Top Tip: RODIN (3)

Watch out for: SUR MER (6)

ATR VERDICT: SANDRIDGE LAD completed the second leg of a C&D double in impressive fashion last week and a 5lb penalty probably won't be enough to anchor him if arriving in the same mood. Robero has won twice here in recent weeks and narrowly missed out at Wolverhampton on Monday. He rates the biggest threat, with Zapper Cass fancied to get the better of Samovar for third.

Top Tip: SANDRIDGE LAD (2)

Watch out for: ROBERO (3)

ATR VERDICT: ARABIAN KING arrives following two decisive 1m4f course victories and it is going to take a big performance to stop him completing the hat-trick. Cold Harbour has been a model of consistency of late and can run another big race, while Proxy ran better at Kempton than the bare result may suggest and first-time cheekpieces could see her improve enough to give James Ferguson's charge a scare.

ATR VERDICT: Bond Angel failed to fire at Wolverhampton last time but she had previously won twice at this venue and the five-year-old should not be underestimated. That said, preference is for LIGHTNING ATTACK, who made a winning debut on the Fibresand late last month and he still appears to be on a workable mark. Others to note are Custard The Dragon and Little India.

ATR VERDICT: MY LAW made a winning debut for this yard at Kempton a couple of weeks ago and 3lb rise in the ratings for that success may not be enough to stop her from taking this contest as well. The Retriever and Luscifer have both been knocking on the door in recent starts and they should be in the mix once again, while Caesonia is the pick of the remainder.
