TIMEFORM VIEW: NINEOHTWOONEOH was well backed and duly proved a different proposition compared to last season when third at Wincanton on handicap debut 8 weeks ago. He should come on from that run and looks the one to beat for leading connections. On We Go was found to be suffering from heat stress post-race at Sedgefield so is worth another chance, and is feared ahead of Titus Bolt and A Ladies Milan.

Mark is falling but a step forward is also required. ★★★★★ (Forecast 4.33)					Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: DUKE OF NAVAN is very much the one to side with as he has steadily come to the boil this term and now features on a winning mark after his encouraging Doncaster third. Monsieur Co rates the biggest danger if rediscovering the form that saw him win here last season, while Get Out The Gate has been given a chance by the assessor so appeals as the pick of the rest in an uncompetitive handicap.

Jockey Colours: Brown and light blue diamonds, light blue sleeves, royal blue cap Timeform says: Irish point winner who easily landed two weak 2m novice hurdles at Kelso last autumn. Well held back on the level recently but represents an in-form yard so not dismissed lightly. ★★★★★ (Forecast 9.00)					Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: A case can be made for all of the sextet but the most persuasive one is for CHRISTOPHER WOOD, who has kept much better company this term and after a recent breathing operation can now take full advantage of a reduced mark. Dual course winner Dear Sire is weighted to go well too so he heads the list of dangers and For Three is also worth considering after a recent sharpener on the Flat.

TIMEFORM VIEW: Ready preference is for PINCH OF GINGER, who has already shown he goes well at this sharp track and can regain the winning thread sent back chasing after a recent run over hurdles.
