ATR VERDICT: KILCONNY BRIDGE makes her handicap debut off a fair mark of 114 for Anthony Honeyball and could take some stopping. Already a winner in point-to-point and bumper company, the six-year-old landed the odds over 2m7f here and could have too much staying power for Lisa De Vassy, whose only career successes to date have come on the Flat in her native France. Llantara finished second behind a good yardstick at Uttoxeter and is also taken seriously.

Top Tip: KILCONNY BRIDGE (4)

Watch out for: LISA DE VASSY (3)
