ATR Verdict:
- APPRCIATE IT looks to be improving all the time and can justify favouritism for Willie and Patrick Mullins, who teamed up to win this race back in 2012 with Champagne Fever. A winner over 2m and 2m4f, this strapping son of Jeremy has the perfect blend of speed and stamina for what is required here, and his temperament looks spot on, too. Queens Brook couldn't have won any easier first time out at Gowran and she represents connections that have won two of the last three runnings of this contest (with another mare in Fayonagh three years ago), while Israel Champ is a dual Listed scorer and won at this track back in November. Ferny Hollow is riddled with ability but might not have the mentality needed for this test, with Darling Daughter and Panic Attack other interesting contenders.

Top Tip:
- APPRCIATE IT (2)
- Watch out for: QUEENS BROOK (18)
