Timeform says:
- Off 25 months after his encouraging debut but that proved no barrier as he opened his account in good style for new yard in the mud at Fairyhouse 8 weeks ago. Should do better again. (Forecast 41.00)
- Landed a gamble in good style on second run for yard in Musselburgh event 8 weeks ago, quickening clear, but plenty more needed now fitted with tongue tie. (Forecast 67.00)
- Lots to like about his victories in listed bumpers here and at Ascot last year upon being fitted with a hood and tongue tie. Sure to be up there early and part of a strong David Pipe challenge. (Forecast 15.00)
- Made it second-time-lucky in bumpers with clear-cut success in the mud at Sedgefield in January. Will need to improve markedly to take a hand here. (Forecast 301.00)
- Promise amidst greenness behind Appreciate It on bumper debut at Leopardstown over Christmas. This looks a step up too far. (Forecast 126.00)
- Made all in the mud at Ludlow on first start for yard in January but that form is weak and he has a ton of improvement to find to be competitive in this. (Forecast 101.00)
- Just fair form in bumpers and impossible to fancy at this level. (Forecast 501.00)

Timeform says:
- Smart and progressive form, readily coming clear as he followed up his Market Rasen success at Huntingdon 7 weeks ago.
- Two from 2 in bumpers, improving plenty and belying 25/1 odds when landing Leopardstown Grade 2, well positioned in steadily-run affair. Bit more required here but wouldn’t dismiss her doing that.
- Put daylight between herself and the rest when storming home in the mud first time up in this sphere at Gowran last month. Plenty more to come and another promising mare for the yard here.
- A rarity in that she’s having her second crack at this having finished fifth last year before impressively winning the Nickel Coin for mares at Aintree. Goes well fresh and an intriguing runner.
- Successful debut in heavy-ground Exeter bumper last month, hanging left under 2f out but asserting close home. Entitled to improve but would be a shock winner.
- Well-bred Godolphin cast-off who took a big step forward when winning second bumper in Newbury listed event last month. Form up there with the principals and he could ruffle a few feathers.
- Very impressive when making successful start for Willie Mullins in listed Market Rasen bumper in January. Big-money purchase for new connections and gets tons of weight. Lots to like.

TIMEFORM VIEW: PANIC ATTACK has made the move to David Pipe following her deeply-impressive success at Market Rasen and there is plenty more to come from the filly. Her new yard has enjoyed success in this and she has plenty going for her getting a big allowance with improvement surely forthcoming. Appreciate It is the clear pick of the Willie Mullins trio, while Third Time Lucki is another exciting runner.

Timeform 1-2-3:
1: PANIC ATTACK (23)
2: APPRECIATE IT (2)
3: THIRD TIME LUCKI (16)
