ATR VERDICT: NAHAARR is four wins from five career starts, all of them coming last year, and William Haggas' charge has a nice profile for this race as there should be more to come from him as a four-year-old. The Dark Angel colt seemingly goes on any ground and has a nice weight going up against horses which are much more exposed. Qaysar was the horse who beat the selection in August last year and won a couple of times subsequently, but he could only finish midfield off this career-high mark at Ascot last time. Sir Maximilian is an admirable veteran and he completes the shortlist. Top Tip: NAHAARR (7) Watch out for: QAYSAR (1)
