ATR VERDICT: Pharoah King has twice been sold for big sums of money and at least looked like he could recoup some of it when third at Chelmsford on the second of two juvenile appearances. Duck And Vanish offered encouragement at Newmarket, while Chankaya must be better than he showed at Nottingham, but a chance is taken on the newcomer SUMMER HOUSE. The daughter of Lope De Vega changed hands for 220,000gns as a yearling and is out of a half-sister to Derby runner-up Walk In The Park so is bred to stay this trip.

Top Tip: SUMMER HOUSE (11)

Watch out for: PHAROAH KING (7)
