Timeform View

OUZO took his form to a new level when runner-up at Newmarket on return, and appeals as the type who could do better still over the course of the season, so his claims appear to be bright. Impressive Yarmouth-scorer Maydanny heads up the dangers, along with Salayel and Brian Epstein.

TIMEFORM VIEW: RUSSIAN EMPEROR shaped best in a messy renewal of the Derrinstown Derby Trial at Leopardstown last week and there is more to come from him. He can resume winning ways with Ryan Moore on board for the first time. First Receiver can progress further for Sir Michael Stoute and is a big danger, while Guineas-fifth Juan Elcano could be set for another big run if his stamina lasts out.

2: FIRST RECEIVER (3): Jockey Colours: Purple, gold braid, scarlet sleeves, black velvet cap, gold fringe

Timeform says: Maiden/ novice winner over 7f last summer and improved for step up to 1m when second in Pontefract listed on final start. Up 4lb in trip for return and he'll require smart effort under top weight. (Forecast 29.00)
RECENT RACE BY RACE HISTORY

Jockey Colours: Royal blue, white epaulets, stripped cap

Timeform says: Continued debut promise when storming home to win 1m Kempton novice in November. Lacks experience for a race of this nature but he's a good prospect and this significantly longer trip could suit. (Forecast 23.50)

TIMEFORM VIEW: There is more to come from HEADMAN this year and he could offer a bit of value against Japan. He went from strength to strength last term and wasn’t seen to best effect in the Irish Champion on his final start. There is Group 1 in him for sure, as there are more in Juddmonte-winner Japan, who ran a cracker in the Arc when last seen. Lord North is on the up and could be set for a huge effort.

Timeform says: Fine third in this race last year prior to landing a big pot back here a month later (fourth course win). Yet to strike off a mark this high but will come right into the equation if the ground eases.

Timeform says: Progressive in 2019, enjoying finest hour to date when landing a big pot at York’s Ebor meeting. However, he was down the field in this race 12 months ago and is 8 lb higher this time round.

Timeform says: Tough front runner who’s gone close a couple of times since Bunbury Cup success at Newmarket last summer. Third in listed company on recent reappearance and he’s not without each-way hope.

Timeform says: Paid his way with victories in good 7f handicaps at Lingfield and York last term. However, his recent reappearance was low-key and record on this course and over a mile do not augur well.

Timeform says: Clear-cut winner at Chelmsford on belated debut in February and found just one too good in Newmarket listed event recently. This is a big ask for one so inexperienced but he’s clearly very promising.

Timeform says: Posted several respectable efforts in Group 1 company following German 2000 Guineas success last year. Failed to beat a rival home on recent reappearance at Haydock, though, and others preferred.

TIMEFORM VIEW: This is one of the very few big handicaps that Mark Johnston has yet to win but DARK VISION is taken to put that right. He pulled clear of a subsequent winner when going close at Newcastle recently and remains on an attractive mark. Unexposed trio Montatham, Bell Rock and Lord Tennyson are all feared greatly, while Alrajaa ended 2019 on the up and is also shortlisted, along with Fox Premier.

Timeform 1-2-3:

Timeform says: Clear-cut winner at Chelmsford on belated debut in February and found just one too good in Newmarket listed event recently. This is a big ask for one so inexperienced but he’s clearly very promising.

Jockey Colours: Emerald green, pink star, striped sleeves and cap

Timeform says: Bagged handicaps at Newmarket and York last season. Strong at the finish when winner-up back on the Rowley Mile 11 days ago (Qaysar third) and it wouldn't be a surprise he was to sneak a place.

Jockey Colours: Pink, emerald green chevron, halved sleeves, quartered cap

Timeform says: Failed to make an impact in listed/Group company last year but back on track when getting on top close home in 1m Newmarket handicap 10 days ago. Remains unexposed and big player here under a penalty.

Jockey Colours: Royal blue, white cap

Timeform says: Wintress since landing a Group 2 as a juvenile but posted several respectable efforts last season. Went close on recent reappearance at Newcastle (1m) and he's very much one for the shortlist.
Jockey Colours: Royal blue, white epaulettes, red cap

Timeform says: Improved when landing valuable 8.2f Haydock handicap in first-time hood/tongue tie last May. Well held both starts since, though, and wellbeing to prove back from a 10-month layoff. Gelded.

TIMEFORM VIEW: MIGHTY GURKHA landed only a modest contest at Lingfield first time out but the way he kicked clear in the straight marked him down as a really classy colt, so he's capable of making a serious impact at this higher level. Fellow impressive debut winners Chief Little Hawk and Sunshine City also warrant plenty of respect for their powerful stables.

Notes:
- MIGHTY GURKHA: Speedily-bred Kodak colt who took a while to get the hang of things before powering to the front in a 4-runner maiden at Yarmouth 6 days ago. Can do better, but certainly needs to if he's to figure. (Forecast 30:1)
- HONEYDEW: Only fifth at Lingfield on debut, so looks firmly out of her depth in this. (Forecast 15:1)

- SUNSHINE CITY: Made a ready winning debut in a maiden claimer at Gulfstream 48 days ago and likely to be more forward than the bulk of her rivals given the circumstances. (Forecast 8:1)

Notes:
- MIGHTY GURKHA: A speedy American pedigree and was in control from halfway when making all cosily at Navan on debut. Stable pick on jockey bookings, so expect a bold showing. (Forecast 30:1)

Jockey Colours: WHITE, emerald green hoop

Timeform says: Better than ever when last seen out, second of 4 in handicap (7/2) at Wolverhampton (12.2f) in March. Has plenty of talent but doesn't look the easiest of rides.

Jockey Colours: ROYAL BLUE, YELLOW chevron, RED cap

Timeform says: Steadily progressive 3-yos who landed 2m handicap at Goodwood in September and wasn't disgraced when fifth of 9 in handicap (5f) at Haydock (16.2f, good) 9 days ago. Course winner so in the mix.
