Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: Marginal preference is for GOOD TIDINGS, who is worth another chance to confirm his promising reappearance second at Newcastle having unseated his rider at Newmarket last time. Tribal Craft heads the list of dangers, although Mackaar is also highly respected while a market move for the unexposed Craster would be significant too.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: The Pontefract race RIVER DAWN was third in last month has received a few boosts so he could be worth siding with back on polytrack. Dargel built up a solid record in handicaps last year and could have more to come as a 4-y-o (has had wind op).

TIMEFORM VIEW: MARVEL notched his sixth consecutive second from 7 starts at Wolverhampton on handicap debut just under 3 weeks ago, not for the first time looking to have the race under control before being collared late.
