ATR VERDICT: Despite his hefty twelve stone three impost LORD LARIAT could well be up to registering his second Tipperary success in five days. The five-year-old, from the in-form Karl Thornton yard, got eight pounds for his Friday afternoon win, and with a mandatory five here his chance is there for all to see. Three miles should be even better for Lord Lariat now, and if he takes the busy spell in his stride, the son of Golden Lariat looks well up to making it a quick double. You can build cases for plenty of them having enough ability to gain a place in the frame. The mares Eimear, Cushinstown Finest and Moll Dote catch the eye for place placers.

Top Tip: LORD LARIAT (1)

Watch out for: EIMEAR (2)
