ATR VERDICT: SNOW is tipped to take the step up in trip in her stride. It was notable after she won her maiden in the Curragh, last month, that Aidan O'Brien said that both her and the runner-up (Salsa who also runs here) will love going a mile and a half. Snow was then a solid second in a Leopardstown Group 3 over 10 furlongs. She is a full sister to Kew Gardens who was a St Leger winner. Yaxeni was a place behind Snow in third at Leopardstown and remains a filly of considerable potential. That was only her second career run after winning a fillies' maiden here in August. Both Snow and Yaxeni have Irish Oaks entries. There are no stamina doubts for Search For A Song as she landed the Irish St Leger last season. Dermot Weld's charge is entitled to come on for the run when unplaced in a Group 2 at the Curragh last month. She is unproven on ground as slow as this, though. The four-year-old has a host of Group 1 entries.

Top Tip: SNOW (10)

Watch out for: YAXENI (11)
