ATR VERDICT: Air Force Amy wasn't beaten far off this mark when second at Windsor last time and Mick Channon's four-year-old is entitled to plenty of respect once again, while Mankayan's Sandown reappearance was highly respectable and he warrants consideration dropping back in trip. Edmond Dantes was handed a 5lb rise for his recent Newbury win, but his apprentice rider's claim nullifies that burden, with course-and-distance winner Bollin Joan offering plenty of value. However, a chance is taken on BLUE RAMBLER, who has finished second on all three appearances at this venue (twice over hurdles, once on the Flat) and is interesting tried in blinkers on his first outing for Dave Roberts. The admirable 10-year-old hasn't been seen for some time, but is well treated if fully firing for his return to the track.

Top Tip: BLUE RAMBLER (1)
Watch out for: AIR FORCE AMY (14)
