ATR VERDICT: Dark Vision appears to have turned a corner in two starts this season having become a frustrating individual to follow last season. Mark Johnston's colt built on a solid comeback when second at Newcastle to land the Royal Hunt Cup at Royal Ascot but, at the weights on this occasion, there is every chance the runner-up from that contest, MONTATHAM, could reverse the form. William Haggas' grey did best of those drawn low and appears to have further improvement to come, especially if held on to a bit longer. Mutasaamy left behind a poor effort at Newcastle to score in great style at Kempton and he is respected along with Acquitted, who clearly wasn't right at Royal Ascot after finishing second to St James's Palace winner Palace Pier at Newcastle, and Zwayyan.

Top Tip: MONTATHAM (4)

Watch out for: DARK VISION (2)
