ATR VERDICT: VALKENBURG hasn't been seen in this sphere for some time, but has shaped nicely on the all-weather recently and appears primed for a bold bid here. His best effort so far over timber has come over a similar distance and his team are no strangers to success at this time of year. Chill In The Wood looks well treated switching to hurdles on his reappearance, while Olly Murphy appears to have his string in good order and the fairly consistent Quivvy Lough is respected.

Top Tip: VALKENBURG (7)

Watch out for: CHILL IN THE WOOD (4)
