ATR VERDICT: LORD CAMPARI absolutely hacked up at Newbury last month for Roger Varian and that form has been franked in recent weeks, with both the second and third scoring at Yarmouth and Hamilton respectively. Also sixth behind St James's Palace winner Palace Pier on his only outing as a juvenile, the son of Kingman is going in the right direction and can take this next step in his stride. Magical Morning bravely struck at Doncaster a fortnight ago but wouldn't want too much rain, while Al Suhail found the 2000 Guineas too much to handle when last seen but is respected on his earlier form.

Top Tip: LORD CAMPARI (3)

Watch out for: MAGICAL MORNING (4)
