ATR VERDICT: KHANMURJAN has his first start since November but brings solid form into today's race and can win. He was useful on the flat and showed up very well on both hurdle starts last year. He was well beaten by a smart winner at Down Royal on his latest start but notably finished in-front of subsequent Fred Winter-third Saint D'Oroux. He can provide his late father Scat Daddy with a first winner over jumps here. Dakota Beat is a dual bumper winner who ran a sound race over hurdles at Roscommon last month. He isn't helped by carrying a winners' penalty today but is a previous course and distance winner which will greatly help his cause today. Politicise was once rated 85 on the flat and while he retains plenty ability and comes here fit and well, has failed to win five previous hurdle races and might prove vulnerable to one or two too strong. One gets the impression Full Of Zandre isn't breezing by too many at Cullentra as he makes his debut, over hurdles, at 2m4f at this tight track and also has a date with the sales on July 29.

Top Tip: KHANMURJAN (11)
