ATR VERDICT: CHASING ABBEY caught the eye at this venue last time on his reappearance off a 342 day break. On that occasion over a furlong further the Yeats gelding got a patient steer from a rear of mid-division sit, and he could have done without the couple of slight mistakes that he made on the way around. However he got into a position to chase the leaders in the straight, keeping on without threatening from before two out. He ended up in third, beaten four lengths and a length and three parts behind Quamino and Mutadafeq. The six-year-old is up a pound in the handicap for that effort, which definitely served notice that his turn shouldn't be long delayed. Paul Flynn's charge is a course winning maiden hurdler, that success coming around this time last year. In a competitive enough looking heat all told, last time out scorers Cornakill Rose, Tiger Twenty Two and Bread And Butter are certainly worthy of consideration.

Top Tip: CHASING ABBEY (7)

Watch out for: CORNAKILL ROSE (1)
