TIMEFORM VIEW: THE WONKY TONK posted an improved effort when fourth in handicap company on his return and this could represent a good opportunity for him, particularly if cheekpieces see him pull out a bit more. Hardy Man isn't the easiest to assess but his clear best effort from 4 starts gives him a shout, while Eversosaucy hasn't been seen for a good while but has reached the frame twice in maiden events

TIMEFORM VIEW: TIGER TWENTY TWO scored cosily at Bellewstown last week and is taken to land a third win since joining Gordon Elliott. Dollar Value arrives in form from the Flat and needs considering back hurdling. The handicapper hasn't missed Bread And Butter after his Tipperary success but he could have more to offer now he's got his act together and also merits respect.
