Jockey Colours:
- Purple, gold braid, scarlet sleeves, black velvet cap, gold fringe
- Black, white chevrons on sleeves, white cap, dark blue spots
- Dark blue, white hooped sleeves, white cap, emerald green spots
- Black, white cross belts, white cap, dark blue spots

Timeform says:
- Has shaped well in a couple of 6f maidens and promises to be suited by this step up in trip. Mark for this nursery debut looks fair, too, and he's high on the shortlist. (Forecast 4.00)
- Cost 500,000 gns as a yearling and promising start when third in minor event at Haydock last month. Failed to build on that next time, but well worth another chance upped to 7f for this nursery debut. (Forecast 6.00)
- Showed a good attitude to make a winning debut in 11-runner maiden at Redcar (6f, good to soft). Matched that form upped to 7.2f at Musselburgh next time, but this is more demanding. (Forecast 9.00)
- Has shown a fair level of ability in a couple of runs over 6f/7f at Newmarket. Should pick up a race before long, but opening mark no gift and others make more appeal here. (Forecast 9.50)
- Left debut form well behind when runner-up in maidens at Wolverhampton and Windsor last month. Latest effort not so good, but claims if able to get back on track now pitched into a nursery. (Forecast 11.00)
- Just minor promise in a couple of novice events and yard saddles a more appealing candidate in Collinsbay. (Forecast 19.00)
- Appeared to take a step forward when sixth in 14-runner Newbury novice (6f, good) recently. This stiffer test should be in his favour and worth a second look now making the move into a nursery. (Forecast 8.00)

Timeform View:
- COLLINSBAY has shown enough in maidens to suggest that this mark should be within reach now pitched into a nursery, particularly with the step up to 7f a potentially good move. Next on the list is Marsabit, who bettered his previous efforts at Newbury last time and has also been handed a fair-looking opening mark. Temple Bruer and Meshakel are others who may be capable of better.

Timeform 1-2-3:
1: COLLINSBAY (1)
2: MARSABIT (7)
3: TEMPLE BRUER (8)
