TIMEFORM VIEW: TAMARIS bolted up on his handicap debut and should have little trouble defying a penalty if he's equally effective on turf, so he's an obvious choice ahead of Walk It Talk It, who arrives on the back of an improved showing. The latter's stablemate The Fiddler has shown more than the bare results suggest this season, so he's also considered.

Long Handicap: Potters Question 8 - 11
TIMEFORM VIEW: FARD has been knocking on the door of late and may well be the answer to this open-looking handicap. Delegate The Lady lost little caste in defeat when going close in her hat-trick bid over C&D recently (Rinty Maginty and Valley Belle behind) and should be in the thick of things once again. Molly Shaw makes her handicap debut off a lowly mark and also enters calculations, along with Terri Rules.
