ATR VERDICT: Godolphin have a strong hand here and it could be their LOOKTOTHERAINBOW who takes this for the in-form Charlie Appleby team. The handler is operating at 35 percent with his two-year-olds this term and the Dubawi filly, who is a half-sister to the Group 1-winning Ribchester, can enhance that record. Late Morning also runs in the royal blue and requires a market check, while jockey bookings suggest Joy Choi is the best of Richard Hannon's two. Arion Fox cost 300,000 guineas and is a daughter of Kingman, while Wakening is also of note with John Gosden saddling the Dark Angel filly on behalf of the Queen.

ATR VERDICT: MYBOYMAX has been a little disappointing at this distance the last twice, but could easily be the best of these and is now tried in a pair of cheekpieces. Astapor ran better than the bare result would suggest at Chepstow last month and is well worth a try over this trip, while stablemate Jessop is worthy of a market check on her debut.

ATR VERDICT: HIGH PEAK built on his debut second at Newcastle when successfully stepped up to this trip at Thirsk last time and Mark Johnston's youngster could follow up off what appears a lenient opening mark. Magisterium arrives in search of a hat-trick having accounted for a useful prospect at Doncaster last month and warrants plenty of respect, while Spanish Colt was denied by only a neck at Yarmouth and looks a winner in waiting.

9 (7)		2014	STAR OF EMARAATY (IRE) 18 D ch f Pride Of Dubai - La Grande Elisa	2 9 - 0	Kevin Stott K A Ryan	85

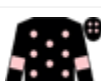

ATR VERDICT: FLY MISS HELEN created a very big impression when making a winning debut at Newbury last month, where she accounted for a useful rival with previous race experience. The daughter of La Havre will have to take a step forward to be successful again today but she looks capable of finding the required improvement. Dubai Fountain and Setarhe finished second and third respectively behind Fev Rover in the Star Stakes at Sandown and they should be in the mix once again today. Daniloova confirmed the promise she displayed on her debut by winning over C&D a week ago, while Spirit Of Bermuda clearly has plenty of ability having made a winning start at Goodwood.

8 (4)		123-378	YOSHIMI (IRE) 28 D gr g Dream Ahead - Dawn Dew	3 8 - 5	Barry McHugh R A Fahey	81

ATR VERDICT: Al Rufaa sets the standard having won twice last month but a 12lb rise for winning over C&D last time has to be a slight concern. With that in mind, a chance can be taken with ROYAL MARINE, who has lost his way since winning a Group 1 as a two-year-old. That said, some promise can be taken from his performances at Meydan earlier in the year. He was not beaten far by Suedois in a very competitive handicap on his first start in the UAE, while he appeared to find 1m1f too far last time. The shortlist is completed by Bear Force One and Fox Champion.

ATR VERDICT: EVENING SUN improved with every start in novice company and he was not disgraced when third in a strong race at Ascot on his handicap debut last month. This appears to be a more winnable race for the son of Muhaarar and his mark is clearly workable. Zegalo appreciated the return to a mile when winning at Sandown last time and he could prove to be the main threat to the selection. Laser Show showed some encouraging signs over C&D when last seen and is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: EMISSARY had no chance of getting into contention in the Derby with how the race panned out but the son of Kingman remains open to progression now dropped into handicap company off what appears a fair mark of 98. Harrovian and Good Birthday were both down the field in the John Smith's Cup at York last month and the return to a smaller field may provide an ideal confidence booster for the pair, while a wind operation made the difference for Data Protection when scoring in a C&D handicap last time and he is respected off 4lb higher.

ATR VERDICT: COLTRANE made it third-time lucky when scoring at Chepstow last month and the son of Mastercraftsman is likely to benefit from the step up to 1m6f on his handicap bow. Mouriyani wasn't at his best when down the field at Salisbury on his most recent start but a repeat of his Goodwood victory the time before would put him in contention, while High Wells is of interest having backed up his promising return from a long absence when getting his head in front at Sandown last month.
