Midnight Magic doesn't always deliver much at the business end but he has a much more consistent profile than most of these and could be the one to follow the selection home. TIMEFORM VIEW: The fact his losing run stretches back over a long period is a concern, yet JOHN CONSTABLE highlighted he still has plenty to offer when runner-up in a C&D event on his latest outing and could well be worth chancing to go one place better with forecast conditions very much in his favour. Last-time-out winners Dear Sire and Esprit de Baileys may be the pair to give him most to think about.
