ATR VERDICT: SWEET JUSTICE has every chance of making the breakthrough. Tom McCourt's filly seems better on a sounder surface which she is forecast to get in Leopardstown. On her penultimate start, she was a fair second over course and distance when collared in the last 100 yards. In effect she now races off 5lb lower when factoring in Danny Sheehy's claim. She wouldn't be winning out of turn with three runner-up finishes from her last five appearances. Pixel Power gets first-time cheekpieces and has a runner-up finish over a similar trip on debut at Limerick last summer. Valquinto is beginning to show improvement and is well worth a go at this new trip. Divine Celt was a beaten favourite in Gowran Park, but the form of her three races prior to that put her right in contention. Colin Keane is reunited with her. Daayeb and Philly's Hope aren't out of it either.

Top Tip: SWEET JUSTICE (5)

Watch out for: PIXEL POWER (2)
