ATR VERDICT: KENDANCER could recoup Monday's losses in Ballinrobe. Malone Road was one of several non runners as Kendancer went off 5/4 favourite to oblige in the extended two mile maiden hurdle. He stayed on very strongly inside the final furlong to get to within a head of the winner, and was in front a stride past the line. That was a step up in form from his two previous runs, and perhaps the better ground was a contributory factor. Marmolata was beaten 22 lengths into third on hurdling debut at Cork but the form of that race is beginning to look excellent. The winner, the runner-up and the fifth home have since delivered, so Marmolata's effort can be marked up and she has to rate a danger. Gerry's Way can build upon a fourth place in Cork with cheekpieces now deployed.

Top Tip: KENDANCER (4)

Watch out for: MARMOLATA (11)
