ATR VERDICT: It could be a case of third-time lucky for YORKSHIRE PIRLO, who has been narrowly beaten in both starts thus far and is ideally drawn here in stall two. Cobweb Corner had shaped promisingly at York and Ascot prior to struggling back on the Knavesmire last time. This is a lot less competitive than that nursery and it's too soon to be writing him off, while Aquamas also has place credentials.

Top Tip: YORKSHIRE PIRLO (5)

ATR VERDICT: Lazyitis has placed on her last three starts and is likely to be in the shake-up again, while Twice Adaay merits consideration following his pleasing debut performance at Catterick. However, TAHONTA was even more promising when fourth on his introduction at Haydock, sharp out of the gates and showing up well for a long way before fading late on, and this drop down from 6f will suit him. Newcomer Panoramic adds further spice to the race.

ATR VERDICT: ZEYAADAH was a taking a winner on her debut over 1m at Chelmsford last month, particularly as she was slowly away and looked green early on. The daughter of Tamayuz can only improve for that experience and she is fancied to follow up under a penalty. Strangerontheshore defied odds of 125/1 when a promising third on her debut at Redcar and she is likely to give another good account, while Cougar Annie and Horsefly are just two of a few interesting newcomers in the line-up.

ATR VERDICT: URBAN WAR built on her debut third at Lingfield with an impressive success at Ripon and Amy Murphy's colt appears capable of defying a penalty based on that victory. Solid Gold ran with promise when fifth at Ascot earlier in the month and he is likely to step forward for the extra furlong, while the form of Branston Lion's second at Musselburgh can see him enter the reckoning.

Top Tip: URBAN WAR (1)

ATR VERDICT: REGAL MIRAGE arrives in search of his fourth course success having returned to winning ways on his most recent outing over this distance and a 4lb rise might not be enough to stop the six-year-old from doubling up. Al Khabeer chased home the selection on his penultimate start and could bounce back to form following a disappointing run at Hamilton, while Ring Of Gold is of interest on his handicap debut after a couple of promising efforts.

ATR VERDICT: COTTAM LANE showed bright speed on his debut when second at Hamilton at the start of the month and Kevin Ryan's colt is likely to have benefited plenty from that experience. Jacattack can step forward from his third at Musselburgh on his first start, while a chance is also given to Liberty Blaze.

ATR VERDICT: INDIAN SOUNDS was only beaten a nose when searching for a hat-trick at Thirsk last time and the in-form four-year-old holds leading claims once again off a 3lb higher mark. Stablemate Line Of Reason strengthens Paul Midgley's hand and the course-and-distance winner has been knocking on the door this summer. North Wind was a couple of places ahead of Line Of Reason when they finished second and fourth respectively at Doncaster last month and enters calculations, with East Street Revue also of note attempting to follow up his recent track-and-trip success off a 2lb higher rating today.

ATR VERDICT: Mick Appleby looks to hold all the aces here and this could go the way of his STONE MASON, who has been running with credit in handicap company this summer and is interesting going up in trip wearing first-time cheekpieces. Stablemate Encashment rattled the crossbar in a similar contest at Bath recently and she is likely to be much shorter in the betting than the 50/1 she was sent off on that occasion. Grouseman shaped nicely over 10 furlongs here on his penultimate start and could bounce back, with Klipperty Klopp and Nablawyh also worthy of respect.
