ATR VERDICT: ALLAGAR is by far the most experienced in the line-up but her form has improved along with that of the Bolger yard in general over the past month. She was third to Charterhouse in a decent Curragh maiden before being drawn on the wrong side in the valuable Ballyhane Stakes at Naas. The daughter of Vocalised then didn't enjoy the clearest of passages when only beaten just over two lengths in the Group 3 Flame Of Tara Stakes and again was far from disgraced in Stakes company at Leopardstown last Saturday. Talacre, a half-sister to stablestar Siskin, has shown promise on all three starts including when just denied by Nicest at Leopardstown. La Joconde is also bred in the purple being a Frankel half-sister to this year's Irish Derby winner Santiago, and it would be no surprise to see her progress from a nice debut fifth at Cork.

Top Tip: ALLAGAR (1)

Watch out for: TALACRE (10)
