ATR VERDICT: Ado McGuinness enjoyed a great Galway Festival with SALTONSTALL providing one of the highlights by landing the Colm Quinn BMW Mile Premier Handicap for the second successive year. The Pivotal gelding didn't enjoy the clearest of runs last time in the Cambridgeshire and Gavin Ryan's 3lb claim is a real bonus. Lord Rapscallion has really progressed this year winning twice under apprentice Nikita Kane, who was also on board when coming from off the pace to finish second in the valuable Sovereign Path Premier Handicap at Leopardstown last Saturday. Eldama has the most scope for improvement having won a Leopardstown maiden on debut and really put it up to the progressive Fame And Acclaim on her only subsequent outing at Punchestown.

Top Tip: SALTONSTALL (2)

Watch out for: LORD RAPSCALLION (1)
