TIMEFORM VIEW: A fascinating clash in prospect in which Charlie Appleby's newcomer SAYYIDA, a Dubawi half-sister to Derby winner Masar no less, is taken to edge out promising Ascot third Monsoon Moon from the powerful John Gosden yard. The two Fillies' Mile entrants look to have this between them with another debutante Haija, also trained by John Gosden, appealing as the pick of the remainder.

Lady Lynetta should be more at home on this ground than she was in the mud at Goodwood last time and remains capable of better, while Mostly is lightly raced and could have more to come now handicapping for her top yard.

TIMEFORM VIEW: ONE SMALL STEP did well to finish third at Sandown last week given how hard she pulled ridden with more restraint and on that evidence her current mark is a very workable one, particularly if she does settle down. Arabic Charm also shaped well at that aforementioned track last time, while Dancinginthewoods is well handicapped on his runner-up effort on the July Course.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: None of these can be ruled out with confidence but BREANSKI has been running well all season and this hold-up performer could be the answer with Jamie Spencer riding for the first time. My Style has thrived since fitted with blinkers and rates the main threat, though claims can also be made for Suzi's Connoisseur and Thrave at bigger prices.

TIMEFORM VIEW: A solid-looking handicap with the vote in favour of PHOENIX APPROACH. Tim Easterby's 3-y-o scored in good style at Beverley in August and did well to finish as close as he did when fourth back at that venue last time. His mark remains a workable one and another bold showing looks on the cards. Sweet Reward is of a very similar ilk and is feared, ahead of Luna Magic and Angel's Whisper.
